

Robin L. Haller

Artist Biography

Robin Haller is an Assistant Professor at East Carolina University, School of Art and Design, Textiles Program, Greenville, NC, where she teaches weaving and felting. Robin's weavings have been exhibited both nationally and internationally. Her artwork has been included in the 14th Annual International Exhibition at SOHO20 Chelsea Gallery in New York, East & West: Contemporary Fibers and Textiles at The Art Studio & Gallery, Fiberarts International 2007, and The 24th Annual Faber Birren National Color Award Show. Robin has received multiple grants to pursue her research in digital design and weaving, and has been the recipient of the HGA Award, SDA Award, and two-time Best of Show Award in Fiber Celebration in Colorado. Most recently, Robin received First Place in 2012 Handcrafted in North Carolina.