

SEFEA Continued Conversations

Jennifer Sargent

Artist's Statement

My work centers upon the structural and conceptual possibilities of fabric. Processes are chosen so as to allow me to compile time and make memory through the accumulation of small, repetitive and absorbing actions. In my work, subject matter and personal interests continually intersect. I investigate myths and fairy tales, those stories that speak a universal language and capture a sense of universal dilemmas.